The Crusaders are clad in chainmail, with a long tunic, while #2008C is a fully armored knight riding an armored horse. These figures can be used for many medieval types from the Normans of 1066 up until the decline of body armor and chainmail.

The Saracens are dressed in Middle Eastern style and can be used for a variety of desert warriors of both the Ancient and Medieval times. The mounted archer (#2010C) is especially adaptable to many periods.
